

Delivering market insights.

With over 25 years of experience Pisacane Information Services is a reliable provider of up-to-date strategic market information in a broad range of industries and on a global level. We offer expertise in online database research, as well as in conducting targeted interviews with leading industry experts. To further strengthen our multinational and dynamic team we are looking for a

Erasmus+ Graduate Intern - International Business Research -

Detailed Description:

- Information gathering through quantitative and qualitative B2B research
- Identification of experts and in-depth telephone interviews with experts from all hierarchy levels and industries
- Collation and presentation of information in Excel sheets and PowerPoint slides
- Ad-Hoc research and creation of company and industry profiles as well as newsletter
- Support in project management activities

Desired Skills:

- Graduate (Bachelor degree or above) of a study program with an economic concentration such as business administration, economics, regional studies or with a technical background
- Quick analytical thinker with strong interest in economic processes, structures and developments
- Excellent communication skills in English and at least intermediate German skills
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment and manage multiple tasks in parallel
- Good people skills, team orientation, quality-driven, highly committed and professional

We offer:

- Free accommodation in the city center of Cologne and the option of a subsequent job opportunity
- Possibility to gain knowledge of structures and market trends as well as strategic insights in various industrial sectors on a global level
- Working in a motivated, multi-lingual and interdisciplinary team on international projects for leading companies

Please send your application (motivation letter, CV and certificates) merged into one PDF file under the heading of 'Erasmus Plus' to:
hr@pisacane.com

Laura Hansen, Human Resources
Pisacane Information Services GmbH
Hohenstaufenring 30-32
50674 Köln
+49(0)221 2774 131
www.pisacane.com